Warren Buffet introduced Christopher Duncan to a lady who trained him about the Superconscious. Then he found 2 more coaches who trained him about the Superconscious. Then Christopher Duncan put it all together and more into Magnetic Mind Rapid Recode and his new book You're Not Broken. I just had my first live one on one session with a Magnetic Mind Coach and what happened if that one session was incredibly transformational. I really shifted on 2 huge topics/issues I've had for years, one I had for 46 years. I feel so different from that one live coaching. I'm so glad I did that because I was worth it and my future is worth it. Chris is the super guru on the Superconscious which is so much more quantum times more important to access for improving your life that doing endless years work on your subconscious or unconscious which rarely changes from self improvement processes and coaches. Chris is the Master Guru on the Superconscious which is what you have to access to get significant improvement in your big issues. Your Superconscious can quickly shift your subconscious to get you the results your want and deserve. Chris and his coaches can do that for you.

I did a recode and felt shifts. I think the process is unique because Chris has spent a lot of time with experts in a number of fields and then managed to pull it together plus adding a bit of his own genius to it. You can either spend 15 plus years doing that or just learn his system and see where it takes you. He clearly doesn't hide any information of where he studied etc

Chris you have the best way of being like a goofy fun kid - even with this incredibly huge message of how to create a life we love - it's all fun and games really. The energy is awesome and you and all the trainers are simply so fantastic - blown away by the training and just love you and the other trainers !

AND FROM THAT MOMENT

The Movement Gained Momentum

"Climbing out of hell with rungs on a ladder made from the personal development world got me nowhere! But the universe delivered just 4 months ago! Becoming the predominant creator in me was rediscovered and activated fully working within the Magnetic Mind Method structure!

Chris Duncan not only helped me realize my true choices in life but gave me a structured plan to get out of hell and into my desired life. I am now a certified Magnetic Mind Method Coach living my true nature and purpose while living a life I love!

And when life starts "happening" to me instead of reacting and freaking out, I simply focus on my dream life, feel how good it feels, measure where I am now, unplug and catapult forward headed straight for bliss!"

"I went from being a talker to a doer, afraid to empowered, unhealthy to healthy, depressed to invigorated and can now confidently say I truly love myself without that voice in the back of my head telling me that I'm lying. I've transformed my inner and outer world on an incredible scale and the results of which are unmeasurable.

The Magnetic Mind Method is transforming this world at an incredible rate and I am so honoured to be a part of it and even more so to be certified in it so that I can make the impact I choose to create. All the questions you've ever wanted answers for and not received will be answered when you get into this structure.

I couldn't recommend it more."

"When I had my stroke I lost the majority of my vision totally blind in my right eye and only having extremely vague shapes in my left eye but I have now regained the central vision in my left eye. Wow! What we all take for granted!

I had anxiety for most of my adult life having to take medication to cope with life but after a few short days at the live event I no longer have anxiety or the need to take medication I am now medication free including no longer the need for blood pressure medication as well.

BOOM! Medication freeeeeeeeeeee!

I am now a fully Certified Magnetic Mind Coach guiding my own clients into a new orientation forward moving new structure. One was going to give up on his home base business and had migraines all the time, was missing out on time with his family and so much more.

Now he is focused on his home based business, has a new website with new products and is looking after himself much better and his life has come back into balance.

My other clients are doing extremely well meeting their own true desired outcomes and end results just love being a guide to their end results it's not about me it's about them I am only a vehicle and guide for their end results."

"I have been 20+ years researching in the self-development industry trying to find something that really works. I have been applying different modalities to extricate myself from a self-fulfilling prophet of a less than fulfilling life. I was at a low point and was trying to put everything I have learnt together; yet, something seemed missing.

This is when I manifested Christopher Duncan and it has been no less than life changing. You see, I was waiting to see it to claim it, and my goal was not in alignment with my identity. I also felt like I had to be perfect; and not being perfect created the pattern of not being good enough. Chris explained to me why I had to "BE IT TO SEE IT" and how to align my identity with my true goal.

No more trying to fix myself. He then recoded my sabotaging patterns so now I am on a straight path to my goals. Thanks, Chris!"

I am a clinical hypnotherapist with a degree in psychology. I have been involved in a quest to find the way to create what I wanted in my life. All I ever found for years was how I need to fix myself in order to get what I wanted. I refused to pay all these "gurus," and you know who they are if you have ever been on the same quest, to go to their seminars, their workshops, whatever these people had to offer. In fact when I would sit and watch them give a talk on television or read a lot of what they wrote I would cringe because all it did was make me feel bad about myself and who I am. BUT then came Christopher M. Duncan and I list to a program he gave through Face Book. It was amazing! Something inside of me leaped for joy. I knew I had to learn more. This book is fantastic. It takes you through the whole process of creating whatever you desire loving yourself in the process without being told that you are broken or how to fix yourself! It is the only book you will EVER have to read again in your life!

That is not hyperbole.

The method Christopher presents here has the potential to help you shift into a creator of your life.

A lot of books and teachers promise that, this is the first method in my 20 years of searching that actually delivers on that promise.

This isn't for everyone.

You will need to let go of your limiting ways of thinking and step into your power. If you're not ready for that, then this won't work for you.

If you are, hold on, you're in for the ride of your life.

I chose this book for my book club we love anything that allows us to understand how we experience the world through our consciousness, the quantum field, neuro-plasticity. This book is a great introduction to many of these concepts without getting lost in scientific 'jargon'. In 'You're Not Broken' many of us will get introduced to a yet unexplored aspect of our mind the Superconscious! Christopher Duncan skillfully and with ease, guides & shows you how 'easy' it is to tap into the Superconscious and combined with the 5 step process start creating a life you love! This is very different from a lot of the personal development books where they show you how to fix yourself before you can create what you want, here you hit the ground running...no fixing needed. If you have been going from one self help book to another this should be your final stop might be the best £1.45 you spent!

Not just inspirational, TRANSFORMATIONAL. I have been following Christopher Duncan's work for a while and follow his system- which has completely changed my life. It's indescribable. I now know that nothing is beyond reach, that I have released (and continue to release) my blocks and limitations instilled in my subconscious mind. There are so many books on the topic, but the results are SLOW. this is BY FAR THE FASTEST WAY TO YOUR DREAMS. Things I have always "wished" for have come true, and continue to come true, because all I have to do is create them, release my limiting blocks through the process, and follow the plan of actions to achieve them. THE CERTIFICATION For Success

I have created a full certification and business system for anyone who wants to create a big impact, big income and have freedom.

Here is what we know...

To create a successful transformation business there are 3 pieces you must get right:

1. Breakthrough marketing that gets attention
2. Transformational group sessions that make a big impact
3. Lucrative products (with recurring income)

If you get all 3 correct you have a very big opportunity because the industry is growing so fast. Without all 3 you will not succeed in your business - these 3 keys to success is why our graduates are doing so well!

STORIES OF Success FROM OUR COACHES

I just wanted to let you know how powerful the Business Accelerator Program has been for me! Rather than throw $3,000 away at Facebook advertising to the masses, who know nothing about me or the Magnetic Mind, I decided to put my $3,000 into the Magnetic Mind Business Accelerator Program.

I paid for fully loaded leads!!

These leads knew who Chris was and they knew what the Magnetic Minds Method was. They knew what the Superconscious was and they were completely my client. I had a fully loaded assistant, Conscious Education Company made my appointments, and collected all their information! So I'll be able to follow up if I had a no-show. I'm also able to advertise to them in the future!!

They are completely my clients! It was the best money I could have spent for advertising!! I would absolutely do it again and I would absolutely suggest you do it if you're not wanting to do funnels and other technical stuff that doesn't fit into the life that you love!

I joined BA In March this year. It was the perfect way for me to start coaching without needing to invest in marketing and promotion. It was hugely exciting getting my first leads booked into Calendly.

The BA bundle is super helpful with setup instructions, gives you just what you need, sales script and all.

The biggest shift was from being a coach to being a salesperson / coach, but Alexi was there to support me all the way through the process. Focus on the end result, focus on what you're creating and the processes pull you through.

My first month on BA felt really rocky. Yesterday, three weeks into my second month and on my second batch of leads, I've just checked my bank balance and I've made $5.3KAUD already!

BA is just the best way to impact people as a coach, bring them into the Mag Mind programmes and support them on their journey with one to one coaching. You get supported by Chris himself and the best sales team in this industry in the world.

Create A Winning Business

HOW WE STARTED

Chris's Journey

Founder Chris Duncan started out on this journey after a near-death experience that had him rethink life. His goal was to figure out success and what it took to become successful.

Reading books, buying audios and going to seminars he was met with one conclusion: IF HE WANTED TO BE SUCCESSFUL HE NEEDED TO CHANGE.. change his thoughts, feelings, actions, behaviors and habits.

Does this sound familiar?

It is what every book, course, guru or teacher tells you..

It is what you learn from the media, society, school.. It nearly seems like a fact.. right?

However this decision is the number one reason he got stuck (and it is also why most people are stuck)

You see, believing you need to fix yourself or be different in order to create what you love sends two different messages:

- 1 - that you want change and things to be different
- 2 - that you are not able to have what you want the way you are.

These two messages end up creating a pattern or cycle of sabotage that can last a lifetime.

Luckily for Chris it was only 10 years...

This pattern of sabotage is created early in life and is defined by the self-conscious ego wanting to understand the world and why it isn't getting what it wants. The ego realising it doesn't have what it wants sets out to do something to fix that. However the desire can never be fulfilled, because if it was to be fulfilled the ego would no longer know who it was any more, it would mean death of the ways it has always been.

An example is the feeling of unworthiness, if the ego identifies with the feeling (I am not worthy) it will most likely develop this or a similar behavioural pattern: "I feel not worthy so I will work hard to achieve success. However if I was to have that success I would now have to accept I am worthy and would no longer know who I am... so instead I will just spend a lifetime chasing instead of having"

The Problem Is Most Personal Development Only Reinforces This Pattern And Causes All Sorts Of Problems!

The truth is you are not broken, you are Superconscious. Trying to fix yourself only gets you more stuck!

What creates your results is the structure you are in, feeling unsatisfied with your current reality, deciding that “there’s something in the future that is better” that you want to create, taking action, bumping into resistance/obstacles/challenges, doing something to resolve the discomfort (taking the focus and energy off the desired goal), feeling good about having neutralised the discomfort, only to then realise you are still unsatisfied with where you are - so you start all over again...

It is so important to understand that you really can have it all now while still being motivated to create more...

Helping people make this shift is what we do as Magnetic Mind coaches - we help people let go of the idea that they are broken and need to get something to complete themselves while at the same time restructuring their life for more joy, satisfaction, success, and happiness.

For Chris, this shift happened in 2016 after his best friend was killed in a motorcycle accident.

Contemplating the point of life and in a state of despair after nearly a decade doing personal development for no lasting results. He stumbled across 3 mentors, and, by combining what he learnt from them, he created the Magnetic Mind Method and all the success he has today.

The first mentor was a billionaire who said to Chris “You must be it to see it” - you must become it now if you want to create. Everything is vibration and you must be it now.

The second mentor taught Chris how to let go of his limitations and access his Superconscious, this was the key to having no resistance to how the world is. There are certain truths in life that cannot be avoided, the self-conscious ego fighting those because admittance might be painful just creates more of an oscillation pattern that will never allow you to fully go for what you want...

The third mentor taught Chris how to structure his life using ancient alchemical principles to manifest results fast.

In 2019 after creating stunning success Chris started sharing this method with others and created a group transformational program called the Magnetic Mind.

Using his marketing skills he designed 3 different campaigns - that have now all done over $2million each in revenue - and created a $20million coaching empire.

And the impact has been huge!
In just 3 years over 20,000 clients have participated in a paid session!!!

Which is unheard of in the coaching industry with most coaches only having a handful of clients and never making more than $30,000/year.

The reason most transformational businesses don't work is because transformation businesses are different...

It is why most fail in this industry.

You Are Not Just Selling A Product You're Selling a Transformation

To have someone purchase coaching/healing or transformation from you, you are not just selling them on a product, you also need to convince them that THEY WANT TO TRANSFORM...

This is where traditional selling doesn't work, because for most people transformation is scary (especially scary for the self-conscious ego).

You Only Have So Much Time and Energy

Even the most highly-skilled coaches struggle if they don't make the shift away from trading time for money - 40 hours a week never seems enough and you will most likely put yourself on a path to absolute burnout if you have to give out free sessions or do 1/1 strategy calls to make a sale, you will never make the income or impact you desire.. Sooner or later you will exhaust yourself with no more fuel left to burn!

You Need A Way To Reach Lots Of People With Little Time

The one thing you must have is a marketing system that pulls people in, creates trust, creates results in advance, cuts through the noise and works on minimal time investment...

You must have a "high impacting, leveraged, group transformation".

This is what Chris decided all struggling coaches need - so he started sharing this system with a select few people willing to do the work & wanting to make a massive impact. Hannah Knies was one of the first to join, a highly-trained frustrated coach herself who wanted nothing more than to break through the glass ceiling that she seemed to be hitting over and over... Chris introduced her to the method and she got committed, living and breathing the work herself and applying it with her clients.

What turned out to be a huge turning point and success in her personal and business life also had Chris and Hannah realise the huge opportunity this work created for any heart-centred "maniac on a mission" - they found a powerful synergy in their shared vision and kept applying the work with clients and aspiring coaches, observing massive breakthroughs while people created the lives they loved.

Once they realized how special their results were, they decided they needed to create a system for others who wanted to create a business, become certified in this work and help make an even bigger impact. Chris decided to leave nothing out of the system and create an all in one 12 month training called the MAGNETIC MIND COACH CERTIFICATION.

This certification is a full "Business In A Box" system for anyone who wants to become a high-paid transformation coach, this certification includes all the training, marketing material, funnels, campaigns and live practice for anybody who desires to change lives to get paid very well and create remarkable lasting change for others!

Over 500 people have been trained in this method with over 300 certified after passing the test.

Everyone who is certified is able to use all our marketing campaigns and is branded as a certified coach.

It is our goal to have 10,000 high paid certified coaches!

The background is a dark blue field featuring a complex geometric pattern. It consists of several large, overlapping circles and a network of thin, light-blue lines, some of which are dashed. These lines form a series of triangles and other geometric shapes, creating a sense of depth and structure. A prominent vertical dashed line runs through the center of the image, passing through the text.

Will You Be Next?

IF YOU WANT TO BECOME A High-Paid Transformational Coach

You Just Need 3 Things:

- 1 - Breakthrough Marketing That Gets Attention
- 2 - Transformational Group Sessions That Make A Big Impact
- 3 - Lucrative Products (With Recurring Income)

Group Transformation Sessions: The 5-Step Method

The biggest problem most coaches face is they do all their work one-on-one. This is super limiting and results in a predictable pattern.

First they go out and get coaching clients only to realise they can only have 20 clients maximum a week (this leaves 20 hours for all other tasks including marketing, sales, bookkeeping, tech).

So they decide to increase their price which stops the people who really need the coaching from getting the sessions.

After a while they get sick of the repetition of always having to chase clients, sell high prices and spend their life working on other peoples' problems, so they give up.

There has to be a better way...

Luckily There Is - Group Sessions!

In September 2020 we had our largest group introductory session which had over 700 people on one session. The best part is they got huge results, however a secondary benefit was that they paid $99 each which means we made over $70,000 for the session!

Here Is The Secret To How The Group Sessions Work... You Teach Your Clients' Consciousness How To Do The Session Rather Than Having To Do All The Work Yourself!

It's true! We use a simple 5-step process to do this.

THE 5 STEPS TO CONSCIOUSLY

CREATE YOUR DESIRE

1. CHOOSE A TRUE GOAL

Learn how to align your target with your end result and move forward with complete clarity

2. CREATE STRUCTURAL TENSION

Learn how to pull yourself towards what you desire without internal struggle and with minimal effort

3. EMOTION OF END RESULT

Learn how to create NEW emotional set points based on the person you want to be rather than the person you need to fix.

4. UNPLUG AND RECODE

Replace old habits, beliefs and feelings with new ones and step into your new reality with a deep understanding of your limits

5. TAKE ALIGNED ACTION

Align your actions with your True Goal to create unparalleled momentum and remove the fear of "getting it wrong"

THE 5 STEPS ALLOW FOR INDIVIDUALS TO Tailor The Group Session To Their Individual Needs

By having 5 steps that you take the whole group through, it means you are allowing everyone to work on a different result. They get to work on what is important to them. Everyone just follows the 5 steps.

The 4th step is where the change work happens - our Recode is the most popular as it works with the Superconscious, however we also have over 12 other processes.

The key is they all work, they all work with groups, they all work over the internet and they can all be recorded (and repurposed for example in an exclusive online client platform, which is a selling point!)

This allows you to work with as many people as you like.

Group transformational sessions is the key to creating big impact and big income.

(attention, impact, income)

Marketing is important!

REALLY IMPORTANT

If you don't have clients, you are not changing anybody's life.. And you are probably broke.

YOU NEED GOOD MARKETING

To be good at marketing you must understand it is like fishing, not hunting.

When you go fishing you go to a certain lake and you put a certain bait on a certain hook trying to catch a certain fish.

It is very specific and relaxing, you just wait...

Hunting is the opposite, hunting is like jumping in the water with a spear gun and trying to shoot the fish.. it is a lot of wasted effort!

We focus on working with 1 target market which is people who are looking to create more success in their life and are frustrated with where they currently are.

Sometimes we go into more specifics like health, wealth or relationships, however we have found going broad and letting our session do the talking for us works better.

Our system is easy. It is based on giving low-cost intro sessions as a taste of how the process works, this acts as bait and hopefully hooks the prospect into working with us longer. To ensure they end up signing up with us we ensure they know that there's no one-off session success (another myth in the personal development world) - there is lots more they need to do than one session in order to be in the life they love. We have all clients who take the session, leave, knowing that if they had us as their coach, their life would be better.

It's very simple - we go fishing for people who want to create a life they love and are dissatisfied with their current results

HERE IS OUR Simple Approach

|01

Post on social media via an ad declaring the result of your transformational session (ours can remove any internal block in minutes)

|02

Invite them to experience a free or cheap group session (it must be group otherwise you will run out of time)

|03

In the session, explain the process and everything there is to do in order to make the shift

|04

Have the person create a vision of what they want their life to be

|05

Have them write what is stopping them internally

|06

Work on just one part of the whole life structure and create huge shift - ensure they know there is more they must do

|07

Ask them to sign up for more coaching and give a big gift if they take action on the day

LEVERAGED AND LUCRATIVE PRODUCTS

That Make A Huge Difference

You must have leveraged and lucrative products, if you don't you will never be able to have the freedom and impact you desire.

Our coaching allows us to have long-term relationships with our clients as we are not trying to fix them - we know there is nothing needing to be fixed and that on the human journey there will always be more resistance as we progress to the next level, this is why our coaching is so powerful and rewarding but also lucrative.

Our programs help people to set their targets on what they are going for, break it down into manageable milestones and then take action towards it.

There is a huge difference between wanting to help your clients solve their problems or helping them to create. The human mind is made of beliefs, values, thought patterns, and worldviews. They were created at a certain point in our lives to help us make sense of the world, to be able to move on, to keep us safe - and nothing's wrong with it in the first place. It's just human nature.

The moment these beliefs and patterns become problematic is only when you choose to create a certain outcome and what's encoded in your mind is hindering your chosen success, this is when you're out of alignment with your desire. These instructions need to be shifted so the resistance is neutralised and you can take the action to manifest what you choose.

This is your job as a coach, to help the client live their fullest expression.. not have to rely on you to solve their problems. This is why your clients will enjoy working with you. They will see the results in their lives that you helped them create and they will happily continue working with you because they will want more - so they choose their next level goals, and they will need your help to get into alignment with these end results and to be able to take the correct action towards them.

LEVERAGED AND LUCRATIVE PRODUCTS

We don't offer programs with advice, we don't heal or fix problems (yet many healings happen) and we don't work with people for one-off sessions!

We want to ensure we create a successful business and that our clients get a lot out of the program, and you should as well.

You can have as many or as little clients as you like but you need to have $100k income to ensure you have at least 1 staff member helping you.

We always advise that our certified coaches have at least 2 programs:

- 1 - affordable group coaching
- 2 - high price 1/1

We coach people to charge $30-50/week for group sessions and $200/week or more for 1-1.

This means if a person has 20 clients in a group program they have $1000/week and they do not need to spend any 1-1 time!

The key with the weekly payment is to create recurring income so you have solid cash flow, and to have leverage so you can impact more people and have good prices for them!

We suggest you have 3-5 weekly group sessions your clients can participate in and a weekly payment option for your group coaching.

This allows for some amazing results.

If you bring on just 10 new clients a month you will have around 100 by the end of your first year and be making $5,000 a week or $260k a year (based off $50/week payment).

Can you see the power of this?

If you want to make a million dollars, it is just 400 clients at $50/week!

We know you can get to 40 clients at $50 a week in just a few months, this will allow you to make $10,000 a month and have a solid start to your business.

THE KEY THAT UNLOCKS IT ALL IS THE ABILITY TO DO
Group Transformational Sessions

These lines form a series of overlapping circles and triangles, creating a sense of depth and mathematical precision.
